

Don't let Georgia kill an innocent man

Save Troy Davis

Davis was sent to death row in 1991 for the shooting a white police officer in Savannah. He is scheduled to be executed during the week of October 27. The Supreme Court declined to hear his appeal despite:

The conviction was based on NO physical evidence - The murder weapon was never found
7 out of 9 witnesses recanted their testimony or changed their story - many alleged coercion by the police
One of the witnesses may have been the murderer - of the two remaining witnesses against Davis, one has been implicated by nine people in sworn affidavits.

The Georgia Board of Pardon and Paroles denied clemency to Davis. Bishop Desmond Tutu, Jimmy Carter, Al Sharpton, and the Pope are among the many who have asked Georgia to retry Davis' case. Join them in demanding a halt to the execution. Innocence matters!
